HARBOR WORK STARTS

Service Bureau Needs Funds---Too Much Booze

The outstanding feature of the Council meeting last night was the calling for bids for continuing the Richmond harbor improvement After a long argument that bordered on the acrimonious, it was decided to begin rip-rapping on the recent fill. There has been an insistent demand for the beginning of this work, and this looks like business.

Mesdames Gibson and Gerlach of the Social Service bureau, stated that war bonds, Red Cross donations and the like had deprived the bureau of considerable revenue and the $50 allowed by the city monthly was inadequate for the work of the bureau. The matter of increasing the appropriation was referred to the committee of the whole, the members of the Council expressing themselves favorably. Mrs. Clara Wilson said that most of the cases under the care of the bureau could be traced to the saloons.

Mrs. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Byrn asked the Council to investigate the report that Joe Raspiller was the real owner of four saloon licenses held for him by men in his employ, one being held by a man named Webber, a brewery wagon driver. The Council will investigate.

Garrard avenue improvement was laid over to the 13th.

The report of the engineers on the of harbor improvement was filed will be published in the News. the official paper.

Permission from the railroad commission to open Center street across the Santa Fe was granted and the work ordered done.

City Attorney Hall was ordered to start proceedings to open up 10th street through the Ellis Landing tract, and the city engineer was ordered to prepare specifications.

The protest against improving streets in Canal Subdivision was overruled.

Work was ordered to begin on Portola avenue and 15th street and Burbank avenue.

The Home Guard was endorsed.

The electrolier matter was referred back to the light committee.

A considerable amount of routine business was transacted and reports of city officials filed.

The Junior Class of the Presbyterian church will have an outdoor meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Winifred Conwell. They expect the county superintendent of the juniors, Miss Ruth Clark, to meet with them next Sunday.

Coat Case Dismissed

The charge of petit larceny lodged against B. R. Heuer, accused by E. C. Ahern of the street car company of stealing his coat from the car barns, was dismissed yesterday morning by Justice Chichester, the complaining witness withdrawing the complaint. It is said that Heuer established the truth of his declaration that he took the coat as a joke.

CLUB LECTURES

Miss Lillian D. Clark, of the University of California, addressed an audience of women at the Richmond Club house Monday afternoon, on the subject of home economics and conservation of all food material. Miss Clark is very earnest and aroused her listeners to the dire necessity of each woman "doing her bit" by conserving and utilizing every ounce of material at hand.

Mrs. Katherine Smith was chairman of the meeting and arrangements were made for a course of lectures to be given by Mrs. L. D. Harris, a lecturer and demonstrator, under the auspices of the State Agricultural Extension. Mrs. Harris will give four lectures, commencing Friday at 2:30 at the Richmond Club on the subject of canning meats and vegetables.

On each Friday afternoon for four weeks lectures and demonstration will be given on different subjects. These lectures are free and Richmond is fortunate to secure them. They expect to start the housewife on the right road to preparedness.

DEDICATION IS EPOCHAL

Thousands at First Christian Church Sunday

In the presence of the largest gathering that ever assembled at a church in Richmond, the First Christian Church was dedicated Sunday, with simple but impressive ceremonies.

The program for the day provided for three services, and on each occasion the handsome new edifice was thronged, every available foot of space being occupied.

Those who had read much in the local press of the beauty of the interior found that the skillful newspaper men had not been able to do the subject justice. The many hundreds found that the actual beauty of the church was beyond anything that had been written about it.

The pastor, the building committee and other officials of the church, together with the members of the congregation, are very proud of their new house of worship, and all feel very gratified over the ready public response in the way of funds, labor and material for the new structure.

Rev. H. O. Breeden of the Fresno church, preached both morning and evening and had charge of the pledge campaign which resulted in $4000 additional being subscribed to the church fund. This is the 165th dedication in which Rev. Breeden has participated.

Many of the local Protestant clergymen took part in a denominational rally following the afternoon service, among them being Rev. Frank Linder- Wesley M. E. Church; Rev. Carl Bassett, Calvary Baptist church; Rev. J. C. Gillette, First M. E. Church; and the Rev. H. K. Sanborne of the First Presbyterian church. Greetings from other Christian churches were extended by Rev. R. L. McHatton, Alameda; Rev. J. H. McCartney, Berkeley; Rev. H. A. Van Winkle, Oakland. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. D. W. Calfee.

The whole affair will live long in the memory of those who attended. The solemn ceremonies, the splendid music, aided by the wonderful organ; the spirit of the occasion; the earnestness of all who helped to bring to such a successful conclusion the arduous task of completing a new church building, combine to make an epoch in the religious welfare of the community.

Nicholl Goes to East On Terminal Business

John Nicholl, the well known capitalist, left for New York yesterday afternoon on business connected with the construction of the Nicholl Terminal docks in Richmond. Nicholl expects to bring back with him some very important news in connection with this stupendous undertaking.

THE NATION'S NEEDS

"Uncle Sam needs mechanics of all kinds right now and will pay them excellent wages", stated Sergeant Daniel F. Rose, recruiting officer for the U. S. regulars, who has opened offices in the Harbor Hotel, 514 Macdonald Avenue.

A list of some 200 mechanical occupations for which men are needed, including electricians, carpenters, draftsmen, drillers, surveyors, clerks, and engineers was received by Sergeant Rose from Adjutant General G. W. Read at Washigton, yesterday.

MARY PICKFORD AT T. & D. THEATRE

When "Little Mary" visited the forest in connection with the production of the Artcraft picture now at the Richmond T. & D. Theater, a delegation waited upon her requesting that they have the privilege of naming a giant redwood for her. She was asked to select one of the enormous trees but Miss Pickford refused to accept any of them. Instead, she chose a young redwood, only a foot in circumference, which seemed a mere dwarf among the giants, and requested that this little tree be named after her.

DEATH, INJURY IS SUNDAY TOLL OF AUTO

One death and many serious injuries resulted from an automobile plunging over a 200-foot embankment Sunday night in Shepard's canyon between Martinez and Port Costa.

William Schnoor of 3030 Adeline street, Berkeley, was instantly killed, his neck being broken.

The injured are:

Miss Velma Murphy, of Port Costa, leg broken.

Miss Jennie Sota, of Port Costa, leg broken.

Wm. Baltzer, of Berkeley, badly cut and bruised.

E. E. Jarman, Jr., of Crockett, badly cut and bruised.

According to press dispatches from Martinez, Schnoor and Baltzer had driven up from Berkeley in a Ford early in the evening to Crockett, where they added Miss Murphy and Miss Sota to the party and went for a ride.

While they were going through the canyon, Schnoor in the driver's seat, and Mis Murphy holding the wheel, a light car driven by C. T. Ness, en route to Port Costa, reached a curve simultaneously with the big machine. The front wheel of Schnoor's car struck the rear wheel of the light car, with the result that the large car turned at right angles and plunged over the embankment, carrying its human freight to the bottom and turning over in its mad plunge.

The small car and its passengers escaped injury.

J. J. Hauser, a deputy from the coroner's office, was dispatched to the scene. He took charge of the dead man, whose neck was broken, in addition to which he was otherwise badly cut and bruised.

Miss Murphy was taken to her home in Port Costa, Miss Soto to the county hospital and the others were conveyed to their respective homes.

RICHMOND MAN HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Wetmore, both of this city, was struck by a Northwestern train at a crossing near Fort Bragg, Mendocino county. Caudle suffered a cut on the head and Wetmore had a hand cut. The party were returning from a fishing trip and the machine was struck by a backing train at the crossing. Demmings was brought to San Francisco, where he was met Sunday by his wife and Dr. Lucas. Caudle is receiving teller of the First National Bank, and Wetmore assistant storekeeper at the Standard. They arrived home yesterday.

No Light on the Bricks

The failure of somebody to put warning lights on a pile of Irish confetti near the S. P. tracks on Cutting Boulevard Sunday night brought mild disaster to James Devine of the Carlton hotel, Berkeley. Devine ran his machine into the bricks, and it turned over, spilling him and his companions out. No damage was done, however, except to a couple of the bricks, which were injured beyond repair.

BAPTIST UNION MEETING

CONTRA COSTA HISTORY

Entertaining Volume of More than 600 Pages Just Out

"The History of Contra Costa County" has just been issued by the Elms Publishing Company, of Berkeley. It is a splendidly bound volume of 635 pages, handsomely illustrated with steel engraving and photogravures of many of the prominent men of the county—57 in all. There are short and concise biographies of some 200 or more residents of the county, some of whom have passed over the divide, but who are indellibly written into the making of this great county—pioneers who blazed the trail.

F. J. Hulaniski, editor of the News, edited the volume, and much that appears between its covers was written by him. Whether or not it is well written is a matter for the readers of the history to determine for themselves. At least it was painstakingly done. The task of gathering the data was arduous and covered a long period of effort and study, and the facts stated are to be relied upon.

After an introductory chapter by the editor, the history takes up many subjects of interest, the table contents comprising 29 chapters, besides the biographies.

The chapter headings are as follows: "The Indians," "Early History of California," "Mexican Land Grant —Pen Pictures of Early Days," "Pioneer Citizens," "The Bear Flag War," "Extracts from General John A. Sutter's Diary," "Settlement and Early History," "Climate, Soil, Horticulture, Agriculture," "Mines and Minerals," "San Ramon Valley," "Central Contra Costa County," "Eastern Contra Costa County," "Doctor John Marsh," "Mount Diablo," "Summary of the County's Resources," "Early Criminal History," "Bench and Bar," "Educational," "Library Development," "Religious," "The Medical Profession," "Banking," "Transportation," "Fraternal Societies," "Martinez," "Richmond," "Antioch," "Danville," "Bay Point," "Crockett," "Pittsburg," "Oakley and Sand Lands," "Knightsen," "Rodeo," "Walnut Creek," "Pinole," "Port Costa," "Avon" and "Byron."

The history is entertaingly presented, for the greater part in narrative form, and the editor has endeavored to make it interesting as well as an authentic presentation of the beginning, the progress and the development of one of the greatest counties in the West.

The price of the volume is $20, and Mr. Elms, the publisher, states that he has spared no pains or expense to make of it a work that will reflect credit not only upon those responsible for its publication, but a credit to the county itself.

BIG PORCELAIN CONTRACT.

A war contract, one of the largest to be received by a Richmond factory has been given to the Pacific Porcelain Ware Company, to manufacture immediately 4200 pieces of earthenware. The contract comprises 2100 toilets and 2100 tanks.

The destination of the shipment is kept a secret upon government orders. It will be made in a few weeks..

REGISTRATION CARDS AGE PROOF

There is no longer any excuse for a barkeeper who sells liquor to a minor. As every man over 21 years of age has been required to enlist, receiving a card certifying that fact and giving his age, a saloon man has but to ask him to show his card if there is any doubt in his mind as to the prospective customer's age.

YOUNG MARRIED WOMEN.

The Young Married Women's Club of the Wesley M. E. Church will give a 10-cent tea in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:'0. The funds will go to the Red Cross. A roll stitch bag will be given away.

Harry Adkison, the well known merchant, visited his ranch at Watsonville Sunday.

Fluctuating Milk

The local milk dealers have decided to fix the price of milk in the same manner that butter prices are fixed—in accordance with the market. The price of milk heretofore has been uniform the year round, while butter prices vary from week to week, according to the supply and the demand, the hay supply, and several other things. As butter is made from milk, the dealers contend that milk ought also to fluctuate in price. The trouble with milk is that if it fluctuates too rapidly it turns into butter.

CHARGED WITH GIVING LIQUOR TO MINORS

Kenneth Johnson, who was paroled from State Prison by Governor Johnson about a year and a half ago, was arrested in this city last night on a charge of giving liquor to minors. The offense is alleged to have taken place last Friday in Richmond. Johnson procuring liquor and giving it to some small boys to drink.

Johnson gave $100 cash bail and was released, his hearing to be held before Judge Jacobs this morning.

The accused, though still under 20 years of age, is a big fellow, weighing close to 200 pounds. He was sent to Folsom on being convicted of a criminal assault upon a young woman of Richmond.

RICHMOND BOY CHOOSEN

P. H. Cunningham of the Western States Gas and Electric Company received word yesterday from his son, Frank, who has been living at Hopkinsville, Kentucky, for the past two years that the young man has been named as United States Commissioner for that district. This will be good news to the many friends of Frank in Contra Costa county where he was raised and is widely and favorably known.

Frank left his Martinez home three years ago to study law and has prospered. He is a nephew of A. A. Winfree, the local capitalist.

PAINTERS EAT TAMALES

About 20 members of Painters' Local No. 560 indulged in a tamale "banquet" at a local tamale parlor last evening, in honor of Charles Breuner, a local painter, who will soon leave for the north to look after his ranching interests. The committee of arrangements consisted of F. E. Claver and Louis Degorio.

TONS OF ARMOR PLATE.

AMERICAN SHIP SUNK

LONDON, June 11—An American vessel, the Magnus Manson, has been sunk by bombs and gunfire from a German submarine, it was formally reported today. The crew has reached Fara safely.

The Magnus Manson was a wooden, five-master schooner, owned by the Benedict Manson Marine company and registered at New Haven, Conn. She was built in 1904 and her gross tonnage was 1751 tons.

NATIONAL DRY PLANS

Restrictions in Manufacture to Conserve Food Supply

WASHINGTON, June 11. A second step toward national prohibition was taken when the senate committee on agriculture voted to report out a bill restricting liquor manufacture for the purpose of conserving the food supply.

The senate finance committee recently decided to put into the war tax bill a prohibitive tax on distilled liquor.

I. W. W. KILLED BY BRIDGE GUARDS

LOS ANGELES, June 11—In a brief but fatal battle between an I. W. W. recluse who lived in a lonely shack near the city dumps, on Twenty-sixth street, and several guards watching a railroad bridge in that vicinity, James Fox, the I. W. W., was shot and killed. According to the police Fox started taking pot shots at the guards, who, firing at the flashes of Fox's gun in the dark, finally silenced his fire. He was later found dying.

EXEMPTION PLANS

WASHINGTON, June 11—The first actual step toward formation of boards which will consider exemption from service in the new national armies raised by conscription, was taken today when a plan for exemption of those physically unfit was submitted to President Wilson by a special board of lawyers, jurists and military authorities.

The plan provides that each local exemption board will have as one member a physician who will give the first test. When he rejects a man the other board members must summon another physician, who will make an examination not knowing the first doctor's decision. If the decisions are the same the man is declared unfit.

RICH MUST DO "BIT"

WASHINGTON, June 11—The rich must do a big "bit" in this war. This is the mandate today of House Leader Kitchin, who, angered at the senate tendency to free the wealthy from tax burdens, is preparing to stage a parliamentary riot in the house.

Kitchin has two sore spots about the senate tactics—first that the poor are getting the short end of the upper house finance committee's deal and second, that the upper house apparently is trying to absorb some of the lower house perogatives as to originating finance legislation.

AIRMEN GREAT HELP

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN THE FIELD, June 11—As the result of the important, in fact, the decisive, part played by British airmen in the success at Messeines, it is more than probable that a request will be made to have American military efforts centered on aviation.

WHAT BECOMES OF BREWERIES.

Here is the good news:

The Lansing, Mich., brewery that was is now used in the manufacture of automobile parts.

Brewery plants in the West Virginia cities noted below have, since that state went dry, been converted into commercial establishments as follows: Fairmont, an ice-cream and milk-products plant; Benwood, a chemical and soap plant; Huntington, a meat-packing establishment; Uneeda, a milk-products concern; Charleston, a cold-storage plant; Blue, an ice-cream factory; Wheeling a meat-packing plant.

Turning westward, the Rainier brewery of Portland, Ore., is now a tannery employing 1,600 men where it formerly employed 156.

The Coors brewery of Denver, Colo., is now being used in the making of malted milk.

The Salem, Ore., brewery is manufacturing loganberry juice.

The building once occupied by the Portland Brewing company, Portland, Ore., employing 100 men, is now a furniture factory and employs 500 men.

The North Yakima, Wsh., brewery is now a fruit by-products company.

The Pacific Coast brewery, Portland, Ire., is now a shot factory, and it employs 2,500 men as against 125 when it was used to manufacture beer.

"Hydes," once the finest saloon in Seattle, Wash., has been remodeled as a tea room.

Of course this doesn't exhaust the list. Down at Augusta, Ga., the brewery has become the Augusta Ice and Beverage Company, while at Washington, Pa., the Star Brewery is the Capital Paint, Oil, and Varnish company. The prize of them all is the Flint, Mich., brewery that was, for now it is a Methodist church.

PRESSURE TERRIBLE

Unless Hindenburg can very soon stop the forward march of the English and French on the west front, the German people will not believe that their pet general is voluntarily falling back to a new position; they will be forced to the conclusion that he is being driven back in spite of everything that he is able to do to hold his lines. If that conviction ever comes to those people, the defense is liable to suddenly collapse.

The pressure must be terrible, even as it is. Every home in Germany is as were the homes in Egypt after the first-born were slain: "In every house there is one dead." The children are hungry; the women are broken-hearted; the mothers are like those when "Rachael was weeping for her children because they were not."—Goodwin's.

PRISON SEGREGATION.

Among the few worth while achievements of the late lamented legislature is the act introducing segregation of prisoners as between the two state penitentiaries.

Hitherto it has been optional with Superior judges to name the prison to which the convicted criminal be sent. After July 27, when the new law goes into effect, all convicts will be committed to San Quentin prison. There they will undergo examination and observation, and those of pronounced criminal tendencies will be sent to Folsom prison. This separation of youthful offenders and others capable of reform from the hardened criminal will operate to the advantage of the managers of the prisons, and especially to convicts who have not become habituated to crime or to association with the self-abandoned.—Chico Enterprise.

A European anthropologist says nature intended woman to be superior to man in some respects. We do not know an anthropologist from an aurora borealis, but he's right, anyhow.

Japan has maintained intact a museum of decorative art established in the year 756. Um—that was the year Uncle Joe Cannon was first elected and Dunk McPherson writ his first "pome."

There is one redeeming feature about the money trust of the rich men, and that is the fact that their wives and sons scatter a good deal of it around promiscuously.

In order to write a whole lot we have to take notice of a whole lot of things, and among other things we notice that we notice too derned much. If we had put in all the time hoeing potatoes we have been noticing the frailities of our fellow man, for instance, we would not now be hollering about their costing four dollars a sack.
